What effect this announcement will have upon Mr. Reed's candidacy remains to be seen. His personal representative, Joseph H. Manley, is back from St. Louis, and is talking quite as hopefully as ever. He affects to find nothing portentous in recent events in New Hampshire, and he is figur ing to-night on the prospect of his candidate securing at least half the delegation from Virginia, but citizens of the Old Dominion scout the idea of Reed receiving delegates from their State. The fact is, it is asserted, that McKinley has so much money behind him and his canvass is so thoroughly managed by To the Editor of the Journal: Hanna and his coadjutators that politi cians like Quny, Clarkson and Manley are amazed at the result. It is asserted here that up to the first of January a million and a half dollars had been spent in behalf of McKinley. The organization comprehended an active working representative in each county of every probable Republican State, and a personal agent in every Con gressional district in the Democratic States, McKinley's literary bureau is thor-oughly organized and will begin its work the first of May. One hope exists in the hearts of the opposition managers, that the delegates secured for McKinley will not stay secured until the hour when the r votes can be counted. This especially refers to the negro shouters for McKinley in the South.

Mr. Reed is wunting in large resource Had he got into the field earlier as the apostle of protection and sound money, he might have drawn upon some of the depots that are now said to be furnishing the sinews of war for the Ohio sentesman. But he has discovered when too late that the Eastern manufacturers have grave doubts to Cleveland or to Washington. For a really great leader, Mr. Reed is making a weak stand against the McKinley rush line. The best that some of his friends now claim for him is the post of Secretary of State, in consideration of his elimination from the ranks of the opposition. He would not consider the Vice-Presidency

WHY KEMPNER INVOKES THE LAW.

He Says That Speaker Fish and Leader O'Grady Forced a Vote on Raines's Bill by Unconstitutional and Revolumore than six or eight of the twenty-four tionary Methods.

The political crime committed on March 12, when the Raines bill was forced to a final vote by unconstitutional and revolutionary methods, has aroused a determination among the Democrats in the Legislature to bring the guilty parties to justice. My attention having been called to the provisions of the Penal code, which prescribes certain penalties for acts that were committed by Speaker Fish, Leader O'Grady and the officials of the House, I resolved to invoke the aid of the law at once. This morning, accompanied by my counsel, ex-Judge Albert Hessberg, I sought the District Attorney of Albany County, Eugene Burlingame, and requested an opportunity to appear before the Grand Jury in order to urge the indictment of the aforesaid officials for their

Mr. Burlingame at first preferred that we go before a Police Magistrate, as is customary in misdemea nor cases, but Judge Hessburg cited precedents, notably the John Y. McKane trial, to prove that it was not necessary to make up a case before a committing Magistrate in order to go before the Grand Jury. Mr. Burlingame finally decided to take the matter under advisement, and give an answer next Tuesday morning.

When Speaker Fish heard of my action, he professed to regard it as a huge joke. I have no doubt Mc Kane falt the same way when Judge Gaynor took his initial proceeding s against the Czar of Gravesend. That is the way all criminals feel when they first hear of proceedings instituted against them. But before I am through with Mr. Fish, he will change his mind about the nature of the charge against him. There is no doubt about the deliberate conspiracy entered into by the Speaker and Republican leaders to compel the passage of the Liquor Tax bill on that memorable 12th day of March. There is no doubt about the wilful attempt to intimidate the members of the Legislature, and to coerce them behind locked doors to vote on the bill. On these points the record is clear, and any one who reads Sections 62 and 63 of the Penal Code reede that the Democrats can make out a

I do not desire to detail the story of that black Thursday. It will live in our legislative annals. It will be remembered as the day when every safeguard against legislative usurpation was overthrown and outraged, and the Speaker of a parliamentary body supposed to consist of the representatives of a free people, made himself their dictator. For that political crime I propose to have him brought to justice.
